

Viñedos y Comercializadora Viñedos Patricio Butrón is committed to promoting a culture of sustainability, managing operations, product quality, minimizing environmental and social impacts, through ethical and transparent behavior, complying with current national legislation, allowing the securing of economic benefits, and the integration of sustainable principles and practices in all our production processes; including its workers, suppliers, customers, consumers and community.

In order to comply with these principles, Viñedos y Comercializadora Viñedos Patricio Butrón undertakes to:

- 1. To conserve and regenerate the existing natural vegetation in the vineyards, in common areas of the facilities and their surroundings.
- 2. Do not contribute to the contamination of groundwater and surface water and treat their wastewater.
- 3. Ensure fair labor practices, a safe and healthy work environment, and promote the professional development of people.
- 4. Interact with local communities and contribute to improving the quality of life and local development.
- 5. Apply an Integrated Pest Management system in the vineyards, taking into consideration all safety measures for workers, the community and the environment.
- 6. Value the soils of the vineyards as a fundamental resource and as such, protect and keep them viable in the long term for agricultural purposes.
- 7. Promote recycling, reuse, and safe disposal of organic and inorganic waste.
- 8. Promote the implementation of plans to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and reduce the carbon footprint.
- 9. Use water in a sustainable manner and implement plans to reduce its consumption in the production process.
- 10. Promote the reduction of energy consumption, evaluating the incorporation of the use of renewable energies.
- 11. Comply with the requirements of the Wine Sustainability Code, systematically improving the level of compliance and ensuring continuous improvement of processes such as product quality.

The Sustainability Policy of Viñedos y Comercializadora Viñedos Patricio Butrón applies to all its business units and operations in general. Compliance with it is the responsibility of all the company's workers.
